Highlights from the Commission Meeting held November 3rd

The Commission Meeting was held at the Palace Station Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas.

- After discussing Senate Bill 147 regarding the minimum standards for training in effective responses to incidents involving dogs or where dogs are present, the Commission voted to continue the rule making process and have final language for adoption at the next meeting.
- Included in the Commission meeting on November 3, 2015, the Department of Public Safety, Communications Bureau Chief Carol Handegard, presented to the Commission a proposal for the development of a Dispatcher certificate. Chief Handegard’s presentation identified the needs for standardization of training, certification and continuing education for dispatchers. The presentation was well received by the Commission and public comment, and will be a subject of future discussions.
- Six month extensions were approved for Robert Eliason of North Las Vegas Constable’s Office and Brent Moody of Nye County Sheriff’s Office to complete their requirements for basic certification.
